Forecast For Tayside, Central & Fife
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 26 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Some morning showers, drier and brighter in the afternoon.

Today:
Cloudy damp start in Forth Valley then sunny spells extending from north. A few sharp showers developing in the afternoon. A warmer day with light winds. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Rather cloudy and a few showers in the morning, these mainly affecting Tayside. Some sunshine developing for most later in the day. Rather cool especially in cloudier north. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Thursday:
Any cloud breaking up nicely and a sunny and bright day ahead. It will feel pleasantly warm in the light winds although sea breezes may develop around the Fife coast. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A mostly dry, settled and much warmer few days with some sunshine and light winds.There will be coastal mist and low cloud, spreading inland by night. Windier later on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.